

Do you care for someone else's child?

This could be through a family arrangement, with or without a legal order, or as a kinship foster carer.

If so, you are a kinship carer.

We're pleased to share our Kinship Local Offer, outlining the support and guidance available for children and young people living in kinship care - as well as for carers themselves.

Scan the QR code to find out more.

