

Westmorland and Furness Step down to Partnership led Your Family Plan

Support from Children's Services to close.

The Recommendation to step down to a Partnership Led Your Family Plan, support will be discussed at the second to last Your Family Review.

Consent to Step Down will be sought and the Parent and Child information leaflets given to the family.

Family consent to 'Step Down' a Partnership Led Your Family Plan.

CP - At the Child Protection Case Conference the final decision to 'Step Down' is agreed and the lead professional confirmed.

The lead professional will arrange the first Your Family Review meeting, (TAF), following the case conference.

CIN - The final Your Family Review meeting will become the first Your Family Review of the "Step Down" to Family Help. This meeting will be chaired by the social worker.

In both instances, if the identified lead professional is not present the social worker or TFH worker will arrange a 'handover meeting' with the identified lead professional.

Wellbeing and Success Goals that remain from the Your Family Plan will continue within the Your Family Plan led by the partner. and plan will be provided by SW or TFH.

There is no need for the new lead professional to register this as will happen automatically.

The identified lead professional arranges the Your Family Review meetings from this point and forwards the review and updated plan to WAF Family Help.

Your Family Review meetings continue until needs are met or can be met by a single agency. (If further needs emerge or advice and guidance is required the Partnership Support Officer can be contacted.
